VEGETINE

VEGETINE has never failed to effect a cure, giving tone and strength to the system debilitated by disease.

SHE RESTS WELL.

SOUTH POLAND, Me., Oct. 11, 1876.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:

Dear Sir—I have been sick two years with the liver complaint, and during that time have taken a great many different medicines but none of them did me any good. I was restless nights and had no appetite. Since taking the Vegetine I rest well and relish my food. Can recommend the Vegetine for what it has done for me. Yours respectfully,

MRS. ALBERT RICKER.

Witness of the above,
Mr. Geo. M. Vaughan, Medford, Mass.

VEGETINE.

Thousands will bear testimony (and do it voluntarily) that Vegetine is the best medical compound yet placed before the public for renovating and purifying the blood, eradicating all humors, impurities or poisonous secretions from the system, invigorating and strengthening the system debilitated by disease; in fact, it is as many have called it, "The Great Health Restorer."

SAFE AND SURE.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:

In 1872 your Vegetine was recommended to me, and yielding to the persuasions of a friend, I consented to try it. At the time, I was suffering from general debility and nervous prostration, superinduced by overwork and irregular habits. Its wonderful strengthening and curative properties seemed to affect my debilitated system from the first dose, and under its persistent use I rapidly recovered, gaining more than usual health and good feeling, since then I have not hesitated to give Vegetine my most unqualified indorsement as being a safe, sure and powerful agent in promoting health and restoring the wasted system to new life and energy. Vegetine is the only medicine I use, and as long as I live I never expect to find a better.

Yours truly, W. H. CLARKE,
120 Monterey Street, Alleghany, Pa.

VEGETINE.

VEGETINE thoroughly eradicates every kind of humor, and restores the entire system to a healthy condition.

The following letter from Rev. G. W. Mansfield, formerly pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Hyde Park, and at present settled in Lowell, must convince every one who reads this letter of the wonderful curative qualities of Vegetine as a thorough cleanser and purifier of the blood :

HYDE PARK, Mass., Feb. 15, 1875.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:

Dear Sir—About ten years ago my health failed through the depleting effects of dyspepsia; nearly a year later I was attacked by typhoid fever in its worst form, it settled in my back and took the form of a large deep-seated abscess, which was fifteen months in gathering. I had two surgical operations, by the best skill in the state but received no permanent cure. I suffered great pain at times and was constantly weakened by a profuse discharge. I also lost small pieces of bone at different times.

Matters ran on in this manner seven years, till May, 1874, when a friend recommended me to go to your office and talk with you of the virtue of Vegetine. I did so, and by your kindness passed through your manufactory, noting the ingredients, etc., by which your remedy is produced.

By what I saw and heard I gained some confidence in Vegetine.

I commenced taking it soon after, but felt worse from its effects; still I persevered and soon felt it was benefiting me in other respects. Yet I did not see the results I desired, till I had taken it faithfully for a little more than a year, when the difficulty in the back was cured, and for nine months I have enjoyed the best of health.

I have in that time gained twenty five pounds of flesh, being heavier than ever before in my life, and I was never more able to perform labor than now.

During the past few weeks I had a scrofulous swelling as large as my fist gather on another part of my body.

I took Vegetine faithfully and it removed it level with the surface in a month. I think I should have been cured of my main trouble sooner if I had taken larger doses, after having become accustomed to its effects.

Let your patrons troubled with scrofula or kidney disease understand that it takes time to cure chronic diseases, and if they will patiently take Vegetine, it will, in my judgment, cure them.

With great obligations I am,
Yours very truly,
G. W. MANSFIELD,
Pastor of the Methodist E. Church.

Prepared by H. R. STEVENS, Boston, Mass.

The Engagement before Kars.

Relative to operations before Kars, the official report says: Gen. Melikoff, with the object of supporting his cavalry, left camp April 29, accompanied by twelve battalions, forty pieces of artillery and a large force of Cossacks. His cavalry reached Vizenkeff on the evening of the 30th. After a two hours artillery engagement, eight Turkish battalions, with field artillery, issued from the fortress of Kars and occupied a position protected by the fortifications. The Russian artillery fire dismounted one Turkish gun. Gen. Melikoff, May 1st, leaving a body of cavalry at Vizinkeff, returned with the remainder of his forces to camp, at Ziamia. The Russian loss has one killed, five wounded. The Russians took over one hundred Turks prisoners. The population which occupies the territory is so friendly that Melikoff is about to form a cavalry regiment of native volunteers.

Russian Preparations for Bridging the Danube.

GALATZ, May 3.

It is certain the Russians will bridge the Danube a little below its junction with the Pruth and also at Turna, nearly opposite Nikopolis. Doubtless there will be intermediate bridges. Russian engineers have bought a steam tug from an English firm here for use in the construction of the first bridge, and a tug and some barges at Turna for the second.

No fresh troops have recently crossed the Pruth towards Galatz, but a large mass is concentrated on the further side.

FROM WASHINGTON.

A Questionable Contract.

WASHINGTON, May 3.

There is some scandal connected with the letting of a $250,000 paving contract by the District Commissioners. Charges of favoritism are made, among them this, that before the advertisement was published specifying that stone of a peculiar kind should be used a certain contractor boasted that he was certain to have the contract, and that as proof of this he had already under way from Massachusetts five schooners loaded with Cape Ann granite.

The President's Contemplated Visit South.

A prominent gentleman of Virginia who called upon the President today mentioned the fact that the citizens of Richmond and Petersburg desired that he should visit them on his contemplated tour of the south. The President said it was his desire to become acquainted with the citizens of that as well as other sections of the Union, but he could not visit Virginia until after the adjournment of the extra session, when he should probably not only accept the hospitalities tendered by the citizens of Richmond and Petersburg, but might extend his trip further south.

Condition of the Indians.

NEW YORK, May 3.

General Crook is reported as saying the present condition of the Indians is that of idle loafers. There are 14,000 to 15,000. They are fed and housed by the government, loaf about, and have nothing to do, like paupers. Crook believes in giving them land to till, and protecting them while making self-sustaining agriculturists of them, as those are in the Indian Territory.

CALEB CUSHING ON THE WAR.

WASHINGTON, May 1.

General Cushing, our ex-Minister to Spain, who arrived here yesterday direct from Madrid, in an interview today submitted the following views on the Turco-Russian war and the relations of this country to it: "I came home," he said, "by way of France. There was much excitement on the Continent pending the threatened war which has now commenced—a war that must result in great good to our country. There is, however, no necessity for the large advance of $3 a barrel on flour, for that is speculative. If the fight should be confined to Russia and Turkey, the demand for our breadstuffs will even then be heavy, for the Russians will not allow their cereals to be exported while they are at war, and besides, the producing classes will have to join the army, more or less. It threatens to be a great war, and if England gets into it, then will come our opportunity to recuperate our commerce. We will have to pass some law or provide some way by which we can gather in the English commercial marine under flag. It is destined to be America's chance, and we must avail ourselves of it. Russia and Turkey were never better prepared for a long struggle so far as men, arms and provisions are concerned. Turkey has an excellent navy, far superior to Russia's and they will give our ships some trouble getting into Russian ports with contraband of war, if they catch them. I cannot say what the Russian fleet at New York means to do, but this they cannot do, no more than the Turks, viz., make a harbor of any of our ports to trouble either our vessels or any other nation's vessels coming to and fro. Nor will they be allowed to cruise on our coast either to watch or to interfere with our commerce. This latter plan, if they have it in contemplation, will soon be knocked in the head. Russia may get desperate, and with her fleet in our waters may do some foolish thing, but it is not probable at this time. Our factories in New England are making arms and munitions of war and selling the largest quantity to Turkey. They will sell just as quickly to Russia, and they have a perfect right to do so. There is no law or treaty to prevent it."—[Correspondence N. Y. World.

GEORGE ELIOT AND HUSBAND MAKE A SENSATION IN CHURCH.—Mr. Conway, in a letter from London to the Cincinnati Commercial on the clergymen of London and their characteristics, relates the following: "There is one eminent preacher in particular whose occasional visits to London are welcomed by a large circle of admirers—namely, Dr. Jowett, head master of Baliol College, Oxford. Dr. Jowett almost taps Dean Stanley in his independence. He doesn't owe the magnates of his church much deference, and he doesn't pay them much; in fact, the gray-headed philosopher ignores the men who for so many years forced him to give his labors at Oxford for a pittance that could not support him for much more than a month in the year. He is now boss, so to speak, and follows his own mind. Some dismay was caused, as you may imagine, by his having Mr. and Mrs. Lewes (George Eliot) as his guests at Oxford; but dismay would be a feeble word to express the feeling aroused by an incident which occurred on Sunday during which the two heretics staid there. On that Sunday Lewes and his wife went to hear their host preach. Jowett had gone on before them, and he was just ascending to the pulpit when he saw his guests enter the door. The church was crowded, and the guests were vainly looking for seats. Jowett beckoned them to advance, and they did so very timidly, not being much used to churches. They supposed seats would be found among the dens and solemn folk, but there were none; meanwhile Jowett still beckoned, they shyly advancing, when they were presently established on each side of the communion table, in the large high-backed chairs usually reserved for bishops, where they sat fronting the amazed congregation, and hardly able to conceal their sense of the novelty of the situation, until absorbed in the magnificent sermon. This may be safely regarded as the boldest thing ever done by an English clergyman.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

THE WISE COURSE IN RHEUMATISM.

Rheumatic patients who have been induced to submit to depletion by blood letting, or to take colchicum and other drugs of an equally pernicious character, will consult their well-being by abandoning such insane procedure, and using as a substitute Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which will infallibly afford them the much desired relief, and is absolutely safe. This benign, vegetable depurient cools the blood by expelling from it the inflammatory elements which give rise to maladies of a rheumatic and gouty type, and rectifies disordered conditions of the stomach, nervous system and bowels which usually accompany them. As rheumatism has a tendency to attack the heart, the desirability of an early resort to the Bitters is obvious, since the danger is increasing by every moment of delay.

Dr. Schenck's Standard Remedies.

The standard remedies for all diseases of the lungs are SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SCHENCK'S SEA WEED TONIC, and SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS, and, if taken before the lungs are destroyed, a speedy cure is effected.

To these three medicines, Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivalled success in the treatment of pulmonary diseases.

The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs; nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe a slight cough will throw it off, the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To enable the Pulmonic Syrup to do this, Schenck's Mandrake Pills and Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver. Schenck's Mandrake Pills act on the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the gall bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved.

Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative; the alkali of which it is composed, mixes with the food and prevents souring. It assists the digestion by toning up the stomach to a healthy condition, so that the food and the Pulmonic Syrup will make good blood; then the lungs heal, and the patient will surely get well if care is taken to prevent fresh cold.

All who wish to consult Dr. Schenck, either personally or by letter, can do so at his principal office, corner of SIXTH and ARCH STREETS, Philadelphia, every Monday.

Schenck's medicines are sold by all druggists throughout the country. mar15-eod-3m

THE DAY.

John P. Phair has been reprieved until the first Friday in April, 1879.

Rev. Joseph Cook is preaching to crowded houses in Providence this week.

Ten persons were buried alive by a landslide in St. Genevieve, Canada, Wednesday.

Mr. A. A. Low has resigned his position on the board of state charities of New York.

President Hayes will unveil the statue of Fitz Greene Halleck in Central Park on the 15th inst.

Miss Emma Lazarus, one of our summer residents, has a poem in Lippincott's Magazine for May.

The Newport Journal is printed this evening. It has a larger circulation in the country towns of Newport county than any other paper.

A New York druggist put up corrosive sublimate instead of calomel for a contralto singer in Boston last week. Her physicians labored for hours to save her life and she is now slowly recovering. It is time an example was made of some of these careless druggists.

They are coming down on the liquor dealers in Fall River. No licenses were granted, owing to quarrels among the members of the common council, and as the licenses expired May 1st, the constables are making a raid, and nearly all the liquor stores are closed. It would be an excellent thing for Fall River if they were kept closed.

Yankee tricks are not all played by Yankees. A story is told of the Austrian minister to this country which is equal to the best. As Count Hoyos was going home he advertised his furniture to be sold at auction, and all the snobs who thought it so fine to own something that had belonged to a real count, went in for it. The furniture was disposed of at high figures, but the romance was taken out of the affair, as the count let out the fact that he was going to be away a few months, and the further fact that he bought the goods cheap in Vienna, brought them to Washington duty free, and is going to bring over a new lot, also duty free, when he returns! The sale was a mere money making affair on the part of the aristocratic operator.

A considerable excitement exists about town over the opposition of the authorities to suppress the advertised exhibition for this evening on the ground that it is a violation of the laws of morality and decency. Various rumors are afloat, and it remains to be seen what will be the result. Mr. Bull gave the parties a lease of the Opera House without a knowledge or suspicion that there was anything unpopular in the exhibition, and it is not clear that he can retract without being held for damages, especially as it is impossible for him to know in advance what the character of the show may be. The authorities can, of course suppress it if they are satisfied that it is in violation of the law, and the final decision seems to remain with them. Mayor Bedlow has the matter in charge and is fully resolved to do his duty.

PUTTING THE BABY TO SLEEP.

The young rascal has no more idea of going to sleep than the man in the moon. He deftly clutches me by both earrings, and, throwing himself upon his feet in a manner calculated to make the most fond mamma's teeth chatter, and seizing my frizzes by way of steadying himself, he firmly grasps my back comb, which he only relinquishes at my most earnest and repeated solicitations. Finding less comfort there than he had reason to expect, he proceeds to explore my eyes, nose, ears and mouth with his chubby forefinger, emphasizing the research by trying his teeth on the aforesaid members. Anatomy exhausted, he turns to pastures new. Do not imagine that I have been an idle recipient of these fond attentions. No! I have been sweetly chanting, trotting and rocking. I have tenderly given "Sweet and low," "Sleep, baby dear," I have done "The Crooked Man," "Humpty Dumpty," with variations, "Hickory, Dickory, Dock," etc., etc., and having conscientiously finished "Mother Goose"—not even disdaining such unmusical productions as "Pop goes the Weasel" and "Mother, may I go out to swim," in the illusive belief that they are calculated to stay and fix the wandering eyes and attention of Young America—I proceed to more solemn business. I divest myself of earrings, necktie, and all other snares, and, metaphorically, rolling up my sleeves, I strike into the "Sam tunes." "O to grace how great a debtor," is a comfort to me, but its soporific influence is confined to churches. Baby still pokes and clutches at my throat. "Hold the Fort" rings out with the heat of combat. Baby evidently intends to do so. Having gone through my repertoire of major tunes with no success, I conclude to resort to heroic treatment. With groanings that cannot be uttered I lay the young man down and firmly clasp him in my arms. Result—a very exasperated boy, a year old, who struggles and squalls most lustily. Being a little stronger, I hold on and solemnly chant, "Hark from the tombs." Five minutes of this innocent diversion convince me that the child must have a pain. Perhaps the little love has the stomach ache. His ear may ache. He throws his little fists about fiercely, and as he reaches for water so sweetly I let him up, feeling that I have been unwarrantably stern and severe. Still I do sometimes wonder how a few judiciously administered spanks would sound. Having thus solaced myself, we go at it again—sing, scratch, poke, trot, rock, walk, drink, kiss, scold, pet—eyes preternaturally wide open, dinner getting cold down stairs. At length, when we are both exhausted and those dear little peepers do close tight, and, snuggling down close to my heart, he resigns himself to the inevitable, how sweet the cherub is!—[Chicago Tribune.

A STORY-TELLER'S DILEMMA.

Mr. Sniffen was at a dinner party given a few days ago at Boddley's. While the company were at the table Sniffen said in a loud voice—

"By the way, did you read that mighty good thing the other day about the woman over in Pencader? It was one of the most amusing things that ever came under my observation. The woman's name, you see, was Emma. Well, sir, there were two young fellows paying attention to her, and after she'd accepted one of them the other also proposed to her, and as she felt certain that the first one wasn't in earnest, she accepted the second one too. So a few days later both of 'em called at the same time, both claimed her hand, and both insisted on marrying her at once. Then, of course, she found herself face to face with a mighty unpleasant—unpleasant—er—er—er—less see what's the word I want? Unpleasant—er—er—Blamed if I haven't forgotten that word.

"Predicament," suggested Boddley.

"No, that's not it. What's the name of that thing with two horns? Unpleasant—er—er; hang it, it's gone clear out of my mind."

"A cow," hinted Miss Gridley.

"No, not a cow."

"Maybe it's a buffalo," remarked Dr. Potts.

"No, no kind of an animal. Something else with two horns. Mighty queer I can't recall it."

"Perhaps it's a brass band," observed Butterwick.

"Or a man who's had a couple of drinks," suggested Peter Lamb.

"Of course not."

"You don't mean a fire company?" asked Mrs. Boddley.

"No—no. That's the confounded queerest thing I ever heard of, that I can't remember that word," said Mr. Sniffen, getting warm, and beginning to feel miserable.

"Well, give us the rest of the story without it," said Boddley.

"That's the mischief of it," said Mr. Sniffen; "the whole joke turns on that word."

"Two horns did you say?" asked Dr. Potts. "Maybe its a catfish?"

"Or a snail?" remarked the judge.

"No, no—none of those."

"Is it an elephant or a walrus?" asked Mrs. Potts.

"I guess I'll have to give it up," said Mr. Sniffen, wiping the perspiration from his brow.

"Well, that's the sickest old story I ever run across," remarked Butterwick to Boddley. Then everybody smiled and Mr. Sniffen excused himself upon the ground that he had to meet a man, and he withdrew.

The mystery is yet unsolved. We never established such a story as that; and we have an impression that Sniffen was trying to build one up by trying to bring the woman's name, Emma, somehow into a pun with the word "dilemma."

We are glad he failed. A man who will undertake to palm off such jokes as this can be spared from society without anybody experiencing a sense of loss.—[Philadelphia Bulletin.

"Hamlet" was announced one night last week at an Indiana country theatre, and the Hoosiers had come in with their wives and babies from miles around, to be made acquainted with the melancholy Dane. All went on well until the ghost scene; in fact, his parental ghostship had appeared, and in tremulous, sepulchral tones began to utter: "I am thy fath—" when suddenly the text gave place to a series of grunts and groans, indicative of intense bodily pain on the part of the apparition aforesaid. "Go on!" Go on!" came from all parts of the house, but the ghost didn't go on. Some loudly whispered profanity was heard behind the scenes, and it became evident that there was something rotten in the state of Denmark. Finally the ghost seemed to brace up, and tried it again: "I am thy fath—ugh—oh Lord! Some more brandy, there—quick!" In the midst of the confusion which ensued, the manager made his appearance at the foot-lights. "My friends," said he, "I regret to say that the gentleman who was cast for the rôle of the ghost this evening has been suddenly attacked with cholera morbus. Is there any physician in the house?" "Here," said a jolly, good natured man in the front row. "I'm a doctor. Show me the patient." They led him to where the spectre lay, out in the fly, writhing in all the contortions of green apple stomachache. He felt the pulse, loosened the sufferer's shirt collar, looked at him a moment, and then smiled. "Well, doctor," gasped the manager, "and what do you make of it?" "Make of it, my dear sir," answered the doctor. "Why, I call it a clear case of what is known as cholera in-phantom."—[Puck.

A Mr. Snow lectured to the people of a Wisconsin village the other evening on "Dogs." Before he got a quarter through, the evident indifference and coolness of his audience made him angry, and he launched out into a tirade against Wisconsin audiences in general, until a man in the front seat interrupted him with, "You needn't be so touchy about it." If the audience is cold, you're to blame for it." "How's that?" asked the lecturer. "Why, you carry two feet of Snow with you wherever you go, don't you?" The lecturer collapsed and left town by the midnight train.—[Puck.

With regard to new plans for electing President, the votes for Congressmen at the last election show that if the President had been elected by Congressional districts, with two votes at large thrown by each state according to the majority in it, Mr. Hayes would have received 187 votes to 182 for Tilden. The result, however, would have depended upon giving the electors at large in South Carolina, Florida and Louisiana to Hayes, so that the same dispute would have arisen. No plan will obviate all disputes, but that should not discourage improvements on the present grossly defective plan.

"NOTHING LIKE LEATHER."—One of the most noticeable effects of the European war in this country is the advance in the prices of leather, which have risen from 12 to 15 per cent. From Boston there was a large export of leather last week, some of it going to England, but the larger portion to Germany and Turkey. Our hemlock sole leather is popular across the sea, and is "just the thing" to tap the poor soldiers' boots or shoes.

The Buddhists in New York are rapidly increasing, and if every Buddhist becomes a Bloomer the dress reform will soon be an accomplished fact.—[Worcester Press.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

—Mr. and Mrs. Fairman Rogers of Philadelphia are in town.

—Mrs. Keene's husband was again in durance vile last night.

—The Berger Family exhibit in Newport Tuesday evening next.

—The new cabinet for the Newport Historical Society is completed.

—It is proposed to make some needed alterations at the police station.

—Mary A. Gifford will hold a meeting at Friends' meeting house this evening at 7½ o'clock.

—Messrs. R. M. Cushing of Boston and Joseph J. Cooke of Providence have arrived at their cottages for the summer.

—Some disarrangement of the fire alarm wires caused a false alarm of fire at a few minutes before one o'clock today.

—Francis A. Stout, Mrs. Edward Cooper and family and Peleg Hall, all of New York, are at the Aquidneck House.

—The schooner J. H. Wainwright from New York for Boston, off Brenton's Reef lightship yesterday carried away her jib clean from the roping and was obliged to put into Dutch Island harbor for repairs.

—A course of lectures upon the subject of confirmation will be delivered in the chapel of Zion Church on Wednesday and Friday evenings at 7½. The first one of the course will be delivered this evening to which all are invited.

—Mayor Bedlow is having made at the establishment of Messrs. J. L. & G. A. Hazard a Gothic chair for the use of the presiding officer of the board of aldermen. It will be made in the most thorough manner, from original drawings, of the best of quartered oak and red cedar, from the old Malbone tree, and will be upholstered in crimson leather. When done it will be presented to the city for the use above named and will be an ornament to the room where it will be placed.

—During the high wind yesterday the schooner Michael Collins, of and from New York, capsized off Beaver Tail. The captain and crew were rescued by a passing vessel and the schooner was subsequently taken in tow by the steamer Bessie Snow. The revenue cutter Samuel Dexter, Capt. Carson, also went to her assistance. The schooner had on a deck load of pig iron. She is a new and handsome vessel, and this is her first trip. The steamer was not able to tow her to port.

MUSICAL.—It is proposed to make the choral society a permanent organization. At the rehearsal last evening steps were taken to further the arrangement, and a committee consisting of Rev. G. J. Magill, Mr. Darius Baker, and Dr. Squire, were appointed to draft articles of agreement and submit them to the rehearsal next week. There certainly is demand for a musical society in Newport, and the interest manifested in the subject last night would seem to indicate that there will be a large membership.

MESMERISM AT THE ASSEMBLY ROOMS.—The audience of Prof. Cadwell at the Aquidneck Assembly Rooms last evening was a great improvement on the audiences during the earlier part of the week. The attempt to get adults in the audience upon the stage was a failure but several lads accepted the invitation. The boys were evidently too much interested in the proceedings to be easily put to sleep and after several unsuccessful efforts the professor sent them off the platform and confined the amusement of the evening to the two ladies who had come from Providence for the purpose on special invitation. The ladies proved fine subjects and were completely under the control of the mesmerist. The professor made them pick imaginary pears and go among the audience to sell them, taking cents or any article of clothing when they could get no money, call blind birds, called the doctor, feed the baby and a variety of other performances amusing if not elegant. Another entertainment will be given this evening and a matinee tomorrow afternoon. The last appearance of Professor Cadwell will be made tomorrow evening.

FUNERAL OF MR. POPPLE.—The funeral of the late Mr. Geo. Popple occurred at his former residence on Elm street yesterday afternoon. A large number of the friends of the family and the principal business men of the city were present. Rev. Messrs. Smith of the First Church and Barlow of the Thames-Street Church officiated and the exercises were of a solemn and fitting character. The remains were enclosed in a handsome rosewood casket and the plate bore the following inscription:

GEORGE POPPLE
Died April 30th 1877,
Aged 72 years, 24 days.

The bearers were Messrs. Benjamin Mumford, John C. Brannan, William R. Pitman, Isaac W. Sherman, Nathan G. Kenyon, and Edward S. Hildreth. Many of the friends and employes of the deceased followed the remains to their last resting place in Island cemetery.

THE FAREWELL RECEPTION GIVEN TO MRS. JULIA WARD HOWE by the New England Women's club on Wednesday evening was a most interesting occasion. The parlors were beautifully decorated with rare vines, magnolias, Easter lilies, roses and wild flowers. Among the invited guests present were Governor Rice, Oliver Wendell Holmes, Dr. Hedge, Mr. Cranch, John S. Dwight, Mr. and Mrs. Wheelwright, Mrs. Dr. Parsons, Mrs. James Barnard, Dr. Bartol, B. C. Porter, Mr. Monzig and others. Farewell speeches were made by William Lloyd Garrison and James Freeman Clarke. Poems were read by Mrs. Martha Perry Lowe and Mrs. Maria S. Porter. The singing was very fine, and the piano playing by Mr. John Otis most enjoyable. The "Battle Hymn" was sung by Mrs. Mosher of Cambridge, the audience joining in the chorus.—[Boston Advertiser.

JUSTICE COURT.

FRIDAY, May 4th.

There was a trial in the court this morning, of charges and cross charges and complaints between parties living on the Fort road, in a court not far from Thames street, all which grew out of a neighborhood scrimmage between the parties on Sunday last.

James McLeish and Charles Marly and his two sons Charles, Jr., and John are the parties.

McLeish claims to have charge on an avenue running south from the Fort road, and Charles Marly and his family reside at the corner of this avenue and Fort road, and it would appear that Marley has been accustomed to drive stock on this avenue for the purpose of allowing them to browse there. On the day in question it seems Marley had some horses and cows and calves browsing on the avenue, claimed to be a private way, and that McLeish attempted to drive them out, and the Marleys to drive them back, and the result was a general row between McLeish and Marely and his two boys, out of which came the complaints before this court today. These are admitted facts all round.

One warrant charges Charles Marly and his son John, eighteen years old, with a joint assault upon McLeish; and one warrant charges Charles Marly Jr. with an assault upon McLeish with a knife; and a third warrant contains a counter charge of an assault upon Charles Marly by McLeish; each party thereby charging the other party with an assault, then and there.

McLeish and his wife were called for the prosecution, but Mr. Sheffield who appeared for the defence, while admitting that Marley had no right to feed his cattle in the avenue, had a right to drive them through there for lawful purposes, denied that the testimony of these two witnesses established even a suspicion of the attempt of young Marley to attack McLeish with a knife, or of any of the Marleys to commence assault upon McLeish, but that the fight was really begun by McLeish who threw Marley down, and that according to their own testimony as well as that of the several witnesses for the defence, the Marleys should be cleared, and McLeish held for assault.

Mr. Peckham, for the prosecution, pronounced the whole defence, particularly that of a young daughter of Marley that she took McLeish's grip from her father's throat, to be a sheer fabrication: that Marley was there with his cattle in violation of law, and that Marley and his two boys, according to the true testimony in the case, attacked McLeish, first by Marley the elder, and then by one boy with a knife and the other with a stone, and finally by all three upon him in person, while McLeish in the exercise of a perfectly lawful right, was attempting to drive cattle away from near his premises; the cattle being unlawfully there; Marley commencing the assault by striking McLeish with his whip, followed up by his two boys as participants.

The court after hearing the testimony, adjudged all the parties guilty, and as the best way of dealing out even handed justice in the premises, with exactly sixteen ounces to the pound, fined Marly and his two boys each three dollars and costs, for their assault on McLeish, and McLeish three dollars and costs for his participation in the matter—Next!

HOW A TRAMP EARNED A DINNER.

A tall man, with a nose like a muffin, went into a Main-street boarding house one day last week, and asked for a dinner.

"Owing to the general depression of business, and consequent scarcity of the rhino," said the proprietor, looking the tall man over, "a dinner will cost you thirty-five cents, in advance."

"I have nothing with me but a check on a Boston bank," observed the tall man.

"Checks on Boston banks ain't worth a copper," remarked the landlord; "I guess you'll have to dine more sumptuously elsewhere."

"Can't I do something for my dinner?" asked the tall man, as a hungry pang griped him.

"You can pay," said the proprietor, impressively.

"You give me my dinner," said the tall man; "I'll agree to clean your house of every rat in it. I have performed the feat in many hotels throughout the country, with most satisfactory results."

The proprietor accepted the bargain as a most advantageous one to himself, and the tall man seated himself at the table, where he did fearful execution among the victuals. He finished his dinner in half an hour, called for a cigar and proceeded to enjoy it.

"Now, then," said the proprietor, when the tall man had finished his smoke, "let's get to business. Go for the rats."

"Ah, yes," returned the tall man, "with pleasure. Procure me a light iron bar about four feet in length, and I will proceed to business."

The iron bar was procured, and the loafers gathered around to witness the interesting proceedings.

"Now begin," said the proprietor.

"Where will you commence first?"

"Right here," replied the tall man, as he carefully rolled back his cuffs and grasped the iron bar firmly, while the proprietor stood by with great anxiety depicted on his countenance.

"Now," said the tall man, impressively, as he slowly elevated the bar, "are you all ready?"

"All ready," returned the proprietor, excitedly.

"Then," said the tall man, "bring on your rats."

For the space of five minutes the excitement of an entire presidential election filled the room. When it subsided the tall man was nowhere to be seen, and the proprietor was standing before a glass lying an oyster over his left eye. The rats still revel in their native freedom.—[Rockland Courier.

Doubtless it is possible to have peace and order in Mississippi ultimately from the reign of democracy, but it appears probable that it will only be when all obnoxious republicans are killed off.—[New York Times.

Gen. Banks has waited long enough, and says now, with the unusual promptness, that he supports the administration. By the time congress meets it will be hard work to find a statesman who doesn't do the same thing.—[New York Tribune.

"Begone, Dull Care."

PROF. CADWELL,

THE

Greatest Living Psychologist

IN THE

Most Wonderful, Instructive and Amusing Entertainment now before the Public.

"Can such things be, and overcome us, like a summer cloud, without our special wonder."
—[SHAKESPEARE.

For SEVEN WEEKS in Barney's Hall, and ONE WEEK at Music Hall, Providence, Prof Cadwell drew crowds of people, composed of the Intelligent, the Scientific, the Refined, fully one half of them being ladies.

This wonderful phenomenon when properly presented, creates more

INTENSE INTEREST AND EARNEST APPLAUSE

THAN ANYTHING EVER BEFORE SEEN.

Under this strange influence, entire strangers to the operator, and who were never on the stage before, become the greatest living actors. Ru

BOOTH, OR FORREST, OR GOUGH.

Can equal them in real Tragedy—no Actors or Minstrels can make half the Genuine Fun and Merriment.

Men, Women and Youth are actually made to see, feel, hear and think whatever the operator wills them to, and act with an intensity that far exceeds the wildest imagination. They will SING, DANCE, MAKE STUMP SPEECHES, BECOME CIRCUS PERFORMERS and TEMPERANCE LECTURERS, Woman's Rights Advocates, Theatrical Stars with grand illustrations of real tragedy, laugh and change to tears in a second. They will cry on one side of the face till the tears run down the cheek, and laugh with the other side in the most comical manner; make up faces (and such faces) to an imaginary man, and get knocked down by the unseen foe; believe that they are of the opposite sex, or are animals, or anything the Operator wills them; and, while acting in dream land scenes, wake to consciousness to wonder at the wildest screams of laughter they ever heard.

About one in four only are subjects to this strange influence, but we seldom fail in controlling from five to thirty every night.

READ THE FOLLOWING, FROM THE BOSTON HERALD:

"Prof. Cadwell is the oldest, and without doubt the best exponent of Biology and psychology now before the public, having been some thirty years in the business. His success in Providence must have been of a very pronounced character, judging from the fact that he has drawn large audiences for so long a period. The entire press of that city endorse the entertainment, saying that it gives more solid scientific instruction, and produces more real merriment than anything ever before presented there."

"The fact that Prof. Cadwell has held an uninterrupted series of performances here for eight weeks is a stronger proof of his merits than anything we could say."—[Providence Star.

"Combines more meritorious instruction and genuine merriment than any other entertainment on earth."—[Boston Journal.

STOP AND READ!

WINTER OF

1876 AND 1877.

For sale cheap, as I want to reduce stock.

I HAVE ON HAND and want to sell the following vehicles:

1 extra nice new Two Seated Sleigh made at Albany, lined with crimson plush, with both pole and shafts, just the sleigh to make a Christmas present, and be remembered at every snowy storm. 2 second hand Two Seated Sleighs, with pole only. 1 Single Sleigh, second hand. 1 second hand Coupe Carryall in good order and just painted, good serviceable storm carriage and cheap. 1 Brownell Carryall. 1 C Spring Top Phaeton Buggy. 1 Browster Top Buggy. 2 Phaeton Top Buggy. 1 Open Buggy. 1 Two Seated Open Wagon. 4 Express Wagons. 1 nice Dog Cart with reversible seat, pole and shafts, just the carriage to drive 4-in-hand to. 1 very nice new Box Top Buggy. 1 very nice new Basket Top Phaeton, will sell a great deal lower now than in the Spring—makes a good close buggy, or a nice summer carriage. 2 second hand Beach Wagons, cheap. 1 second hand Landau, cheap. 3 Barouches in good order and newly painted. 1 Victoria with pole and shafts, cheap if sold now. 1 Covered Wagon, will carry 8 people easy. 1 new Express Wagon, cheap as we are giving up selling express wagons. 1 new Road Wagon, just the thing for business or pleasure. 1 Sargent Top Phaeton Buggy, been used but little. 1 Phaeton Top Buggy, one year's use and that with care. 1 second hand Light Dog Cart with shafts. 1 second hand Dog with seat behind, just the thing for 6 horse team, newly painted and in good order, and several other carriages all of which I shall be glad to sell for cash or paper that will be paid at maturity.

I would say that through the kindness of my friends, I have disposed of about 100 different vehicles the past few years having sold carriages to go to Providence, R. I., Stonington, Ct., Little Rock, Arkansas, Middletown, Portsmouth, Tiverton, Fall River, New Hampshire and various other places, all of which have proved as represented. To those having any House Painting, Graining or any other work, that they want done and are willing to pay a fair price to have the same done in a good and substantial manner, I shall be glad to give estimates, and will warrant all work done by me to be in every respect as represented. I return my thanks for the generous patronage which has been bestowed in the past and asked a continuance in the future. To my very numerous friends who have neglected to settle their bills for work done long ago,—if they will now respond by attending to them at once they will confer a great favor, as money is now very needful.

FIFTEEN REASONS

WHY THE

A. B. C. WRINGER

IS SUPERIOR

TO ALL OTHERS!

1. It requires but one half the labor to do the work over the old style wringer.
2. It does not tear off buttons or cut the clothes by forcing and splitting them as other wringers do.
3. It does its work with more uniformity than the old style.
4. It is sold at less than one half the price of other wringers.
5. All of the strength exerted is utilized in wringing, as there is no friction to overcome.
6. It requires no adjustment for different kinds of work.
7. It has no springs to weaken or get out of order.
8. It is made wholly of iron, and galvanized, each and every part being durable, and has no wood about it to warp, crack or split.
9. It is light to handle, and easy to change from one tub to another.
10. Clothes wrung with it will iron easier, as it does not press them full of sharp wrinkles as rubber rolls do.
11. After the clothes are wrung they are left in a loose state, ready to take the bluing or hang out. This is not accomplished in the old style wringer.
12. There are no wearing points, consequently it needs no oil.
13. It will last any one a life time, while others have to be supplied with new rolls in from two to five years time, at a cost which would buy the A. B. C. Wringer.
14. Only the best material is used, and the greatest care is taken to see that every Wringer is perfect before it is sent out.
15. Any person purchasing an A. B. C. Wringer and who is not satisfied with it, after a fair trial, can return it at the end of thirty days, and his money will be refunded

PRICE, $3.00.

"Begone, Dull Care."
PROF. CADWELL,
THE
Greatest Living Psychologist
IN THE
Most Wonderful, Instructive and Amusing Entertainment now before the Public.
"Can such things be, and overcome us, like a summer cloud, without our special wonder."
—[SHAKESPEARE.

For SEVEN WEEKS in Barney's Hall, and ONE WEEK at Music Hall, Providence, Prof Cadwell drew crowds of people, composed of the Intelligent, the Scientific, the Refined, fully one half of them being ladies.

This wonderful phenomenon when properly presented, creates more
INTENSE INTEREST AND EARNEST APPLAUSE
THAN ANYTHING EVER BEFORE SEEN.

Under this strange influence, entire strangers to the operator, and who were never on the stage before, become the greatest living actors. No
BOOTH, OR FORREST, OR GOUGH,
Can equal them in real Tragedy—no Actors or Minstrels can make half the
Genuine Fun and Merriment,
Men, Women and Youth are actually made to see, feel, hear and think whatever the operator wills them to, and act with an intensity that far exceeds the wildest imagination. They will SING, DANCE, MAKE STUMP SPEECHES, BECOME CIRCUS PERFORMERS and TEMPERANCE LECTURERS, Woman's Rights Advocates, Theatrical Stars with grand illustrations of real tragedy, laugh and change to tears in a second. They will cry on one side of the face till the tears run down the cheek, and laugh with the other side in the most comical manner; make up faces (and such faces) to an imaginary man, and get knocked down by the unseen foe; believe that they are of the opposite sex, or are animals, or anything the Operator wills them; and, while acting in dream land scenes, wake to consciousness to wonder at the wildest screams of laughter they ever heard.

About one in four only are subjects to this strange influence, but we seldom fail in controlling from five to thirty every night.

READ THE FOLLOWING, FROM THE BOSTON HERALD:

"Prof. Cadwell is the oldest, and without doubt the best exponent of Biology and psychology now before the public, having been some thirty years in the business. His success in Providence must have been of a very pronounced character, judging from the fact that he has drawn large audiences for so long a period. The entire press of that city endorse the entertainment, saying that it gives more solid scientific instruction, and produces more real merriment than anything ever before presented there."

"The fact that Prof. Cadwell has held an uninterrupted series of performances here for eight weeks is a stronger proof of his merits than anything we could say."—[Providence Star.

"Combines more meritorious instruction and genuine merriment than any other entertainment on earth."—[Boston Journal.

I., Stonington, Ct., Little Rock, Arkansas, Middletown, Portsmouth, Tiverton, Fall River, New Hampshire and various other places, all of which have proved as represented. To those having any House Painting, Graining or any other work, that they want done and are willing to pay a fair price to have the same done in a good and substantial manner, I shall be glad to give estimates, and will warrant all work done by me to be in every respect as represented. I return my thanks for the generous patronage which has been bestowed in the past and asked a continuance in the future. To my very numerous friends who have neglected to settle their bills for work done long ago,—if they will now respond by attending to them at once they will confer a great favor, as money is now very useful.

FIFTEEN REASONS
WHY THE
A. B. C. WRINGER
IS SUPERIOR
TO ALL OTHERS!

1. It requires but one half the labor to do the work over the old style wringer.
2. It does not tear off buttons or cut the clothes by forcing and splitting them as other wringers do.
3. It does its work with more uniformity than the old style.
4. It is sold at less than one half the price of other wringers.
5. All of the strength exerted is utilized in wringing, as there is no friction to overcome.
6. It requires no adjustment for different kinds of work.
7. It has no springs to weaken or get out of order.
8. It is made wholly of iron, and galvanized, each and every part being durable, and has no wood about it to warp, crack or split.
9. It is light to handle, and easy to change from one tub to another.
10. Clothes wrung with it will iron easier, as it does not press them full of sharp wrinkles as rubber rolls do.
11. After the clothes are wrung they are left in a loose state, ready to take the bluing or hang out. This is not accomplished in the old style wringer.
12. There are no wearing points, consequently it needs no oil.
13. It will last any one a life time, while others have to be supplied with new rolls in from two to five years time, at a cost which would buy the A. B. C. Wringer.
14. Only the best material is used, and the greatest care is taken to see that every Wringer is perfect before it is sent out.
15. Any person purchasing an A. B. C. Wringer and who is not satisfied with it, after a fair trial, can return it at the end of thirty days, and his money will be refunded

PRICE, $3.00.

R. H. EDDY, Esq.—Dear Sir: you procured for me, in 1840, my first patent. Since then you have acted for and advised me in hundreds of cases, and procured many patents, reissues and extensions. CHILDREN TEETHING

MRS. WINSLOW'S

SOOTHING SYRUP,

For Children Teething,

greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is Sure to Regulate the Bowels.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and

Relief and Health to Your Infants.

We have put up and sold this article for years, and CAN SAY IN CONFIDENCE AND TRUTH of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—NEVER HAS IT FAILED, IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter "WHAT WE DO KNOW," after years of experience. AND PLEDGE OUR REPUTATION FOR THE FULFILMENT OF WHAT WE HERE DECLARE. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation has been used with NEVER FAILING SUCCESS in

Thousands of Cases.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve Griping in the Bowels, and Wind Colic.

We believe it the BEST AND SUREST REMEDY IN THE WORLD, in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—DO NOT LET YOUR PREJUDICES, NOR THE PREJUDICES OF OTHERS, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE—to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle.

Be sure and call for

"Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup,"

Having the fac-simile of "CURTIS & PERKINS" on the outside wrapper.

Sold by druggists throughout the world.

TO THE LOVERS of STEREOSCOPIC VIEWS.

THE ATTENTION of the public is invited to the following views from negative by J. A. WILLIAMS, which is believed to be the best and largest collection of the gems of Newport scenery ever offered.

The negatives are all carefully taken with the best materials and instruments and aim to present not merely patches of landscapes from points chosen at random as is the case with many others, but, views which shall combine within themselves all the best elements of a picture in the artistic sense.

We would call particular attention to our new cabinet size views taken the present season, 1876, which exhibit with all the fidelity of the stereoscope.

Parties who may wish to make presents to their friends abroad, or to carry home memento of Newport, cannot make a more acceptable choice than by selecting from the many beautiful views of Newport and surroundings.

Interiors and exteriors of houses taken to order. Also parties, horses, &c.
